Teacher hearing scheduled

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District Board has set a date for a continuation of a nonreemployment hearing for band director Lana Kay Jones.

The board agreed Monday to set the hearing for June 16 and to notify Jones' attorney, John Deakle of Hattiesburg, of the date.

The hearing is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m.

Board Attorney Lucien Gex said he has been attempting to schedule the continuation with Deakle since the first part of the hearing June 2, but the other attorney has been tied up in court.

The board still has the option of granting an additional continuance. "If Mr. Deakle gives us a good enough reason," Gex said.

"She'll have her hearing. It's just that we have a problem about when she'll have it," the board attorney said.

Witnesses at the first part of Jones' hearing included all five school board members, Superintendent of Education Roger Oge, Bay Senior High School Principal Frank Ladner and two band directors from other schools.

Testimony showed that the major reason Jones was issued a letter of nonreemployment was based on an incident during this year's Krewe of Triton Mardi Gras Parade in which Jones allegedly allowed students to sit and lie on the pavement during a delay in the parade's movement.

In a related matter, the board

SEWER REPAIR—Bay St. Louis Field Supervisor Buddy Zimmerman, far right, inspects sewer line repair being made in the 400 block of Carroll Avenue. Construction workers Lionel Augustine, left, Clifton Richard, pipe layer in excavation pit, and Joseph Richard, machine operator, are employed by Magnolia Construction Company of Baton Rouge, which was the successful bidder on the project. The repair of approximately 40 feet of 10-inch sewer line is expected to cost the city $12,000. Norbert Redmond, director of the department of public works, said this line has been a constant source of problems and another project is being planned to construct an inner liner of the existing sewer pipe to eliminate future problems.

Some sewerage increase expected in 1988

Waveland utility rates remain unchanged

BY DENA BISNETTE

Utility fees in the city of Waveland will not go up this year, although a sewerage increase will be considered for the fiscal year 1987-88 budget.

According to Mayor John Longo Jr., several cities along the Gulf Coast are raising rates, including Bay St. Louis, which has resulted in numerous inquiries from Waveland residents.

Longo said the city's most recent utility increase was in 1981, when gas prices went up.

The sewerage increase to be considered when the board of aldermen works on its budget in August because the city will have to pay for part of the cost of improvements to the wastewater treatment plant on Gulfside Drive.

The improvements are designed to allow the plant to handle additional flow when the collection systems for the cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland are linked as part of a Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District project.

Waveland's present rates are $9.95 for the first 7,000 gallons of water and $1 for each additional 1,000 gallons; $9.95 flat rate for a residential sewage customer, with an additional $3.50 flat rate for sewage treatment; and $9.95 for the first 1,000 cubic feet of natural gas with $1 for each additional 100 cubic feet. Garbage collection is free.

The mayor commented that low utilities costs are helping the city to keep both its user charges and its taxes down.

"The truth of the matter is that Waveland is probably the only city in the U.S. operating on 10 mills," the mayor said.

The current tax rate is 13 mills, but the additional three mills have been levied to pay off a debt from Hurricane Camille and are not involved in operating costs.

"I'm estimating that in the future there shouldn't be any tax increase unless something catastrophic comes up," Longo said.

The three mills from Camille, which are scheduled to be dropped in about five years, could be left on the city's tax levy to cover growth, he added.

Waveland presently owns and operates its own gas, water, sewage collection and garbage collection systems.

"We've got everything working very efficiently now under the direction of our city superintendent, Herman Yarborough. We have upgraded our equipment and trained our personnel," the mayor explained.

In addition, the city buys its garbage trucks used whenever possible, and recently acquired two for $3,000 each.

Although Waveland gets its gas from United Gas Pipeline Company, prices are currently not high, Longo said, and the city keeps its costs down with constant maintenance and cathodic protection on its lines, which decreases the chance of leakage or explosion.

A comparison of some of the city's gas bills from January of the past four years shows that the city spent $63,294 for that month in 1984, $28,257

Bay St. Louis council approves increased utility rate structure

BY BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Bay St. Louis City Council reluctantly approved a new rate structure for city utility bills Tuesday which in some cases may mean a substantial increase.

This latest proposal which will go into effect in July, reflects the deletion of adjustments to utility rate bills based on lot size differences.

Without the lot size adjustments, the increase for small residential users in the summer will be much higher than originally reported figures of $3.45.

The actual minimum bill for residential customers with water, gas, sewer and garbage collection will increase from $33 to $45.80, a difference of $12.80.

However, City Clerk Edward Favre stressed an average customer's annual bill may have a much lower percentage increase than 40 percent increase on the minimum bill depending on amount of gas and water consumption.

"Past winter utility bills when there has been higher usage of gas may actually be lower than bills under the previous rate structure," he said.

The new rate structure shows a decrease in earlier reported figures for large residential customers.

A large residential customer's summer bill may reflect an increase of 25 percent but the winter increase will be less than one percent.

Councilman Wilmer Seymour said this rate increase was the hardest vote he had ever had to make.

Before the vote, the councilmen again questioned the absolute necessity of the increase.

Favre told the council to maintain the same level of services, there was no doubt the increase is required.

The rate structure approved by the council will fully provide the extra funds required to operate the utility department.

In proposing the revised structure several weeks ago, Mayor Victor J. Frankiewicz Jr. told the council $2.1 million must be raised to meet expenses not covered in the existing rate structure.

These new costs include Waveland Regional Wastewater management District costs of more than a million dollars, an increase by United Gas, annexed area utility improvements bonds and interest payments.

Also included in the approved new rate structure is $100,000 for depreciation and replacement funds.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, council members again reviewed the differences in the newly approved rate structure in comparison to figures reflecting lot size adjustments.

They had agreed last week not to include the lot size adjustments.

Frankiewicz had recommended this method as a way to spread the capital cost of installing water and sewer lines proportionally among customers.

However, council members said they did not think this should be a determining factor in the customer's bill.

Mitchell files appeal of nonreemployment

BY DENA BISNETTE

A North Bay Elementary School teacher whose appeal of a nonreemployment decision was denied by the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District board is taking the matter to Chancery Court.

Teacher Juanita Mitchell, through her attorneys Jayne Buttross and Joseph Runnels, filed a petition for appeal in Hancock County Chancery Court Monday.

The appeal names the school district, represented by attorney Lucien M. Gex, as defendant.

Buttross said a detailed complaint against the board has not yet been filed because attorneys are waiting for the transcript of a two-part school board hearing conducted for Mitchell on May 7 and May 18.

The attorney said the transcript is expected to be available in about four weeks.

"We feel the hearing was not fair and impartial," Buttross stated, explaining that the matter may also be taken to federal court.

"Also, the whole idea of their attorney defending the actions of the superintendent makes his advice biased because he is supposed to be advising the board."

According to testimony presented at the hearing, the three reasons Mitchell was given for her nonreemployment for the 1987-88 school year included alleged tardiness that repeatedly left her class unsupervised during the beginning of the school day and her arrival, allegations that she failed to use the district's instructional management plan in teaching reading and allegations of failure to complete assigned tasks.

Although Mitchell's supervising principal, Roger James, testified that he had reprimanded her for chronic lateness, she testified that her class has been left unsupervised, with the exception of two occasions, only during a morning assembly program in which all of the students and teachers stand outside their classrooms for a flag salute.

Mitchell also testified that she had never been provided a copy of an instructional management plan for her class, that none had been provided in the classroom and that she had received no verbal or written instructions regarding whether the plan had become mandatory.

She stated that she had continued to use a textbook company's plan provided with other teaching materials.

The testimony also showed that Mitchell, who is black, had filed a 1984 Equal Employment Opportunity

WAVELAND FIREFIGHTERS prepare to clear smoke Tuesday from the home of Herbert Bels, 435 Sandy Street, after extinguishing a fire that apparently started in a back bedroom. According to Waveland Fire Chief David Garcia, a neighbor, Dennis Strahan, saw smoke coming from the house at about 2:58 p.m. and contacted the fire department through its 911 emergency number. The first of three trucks and seven firefighters responded at 3:01 p.m. and the blaze was out within 30 minutes. Bels and another occupant of the front part of the house were alerted by a smoke alarm and escaped without injury. Garcia said the section of the house where the fire started was occupied by a brother who was not home at the time. One firefighter, Jeff Garber, suffered minor injuries from heat exhaustion and smoke and was treated at the scene by Fire Department Lt. Bill Field III, who is also an emergency medical technician (EMT-1). Garber was sent to Hancock Medical Center to be checked by a doctor, then returned to the scene to assist with salvage and overhaul procedures. Fire damage was mostly confined to the rear of the house, but heavy smoke damage occurred throughout the building. Hancock County Waveland Fire Marshall Jay Morris is assisting the department in an investigation of the cause of the blaze. The firefighters were assisted at the scene by Waveland Police Officers Lamar Jones and Brett Ladner, who are both auxiliary firefighters, and by auxiliary firefighter Bill Field Jr. Garcia said. Space flight administrator to participate in Transfer Center dedication at NSTL

Rear Adm. Richard Truly, NASA's Associate Administrator for Space Flight, will be one of the participants June 11 when the Mississippi Technology Transfer Center is dedicated at the National Space Technology Laboratories.

Truly, a native of Mississippi, will be joined by Gov. Bill Allain and Jerry Hlass, NSTL director, at the afternoon ceremonies.

Dedication activities will begin at 2 p.m. in the Visitors Center auditorium when Truly, Allain and Hlass will address a group of invited guests, including state legislators, state and local officials and business and education leaders from across Mississippi.

The public is invited to attend the dedication ceremonies at 3 p.m. in front of the new building which is located in NSTL's administrative complex.

Refreshments will be served inside the building.

Adm. Truly was born in Fayette, Miss., and attended schools there and in Meridian. He enrolled as an NROTC midshipman at the Georgia Institute of Technology and received a bachelor of aeronautical engineering degree in 1959.

Truly became a NASA astronaut in August, 1969. His first flight in space was Nov. 12-14, 1981 as pilot of the Space Shuttle Columbia, the first manned spacecraft to be refloated in space.

His second flight in 1983 was as commander of Space Shuttle Challenger, the first night launch and landing in the Shuttle program.

Truly was named associate administrator for space flight on Feb. 20, 1986. Before assuming this position, he was the first commander of the Naval Space Command in Dahlgren, Va., which was established on Oct. 1, 1984.

The word sin has little meaning in the mind of the average person today. Much has been done by the humanistic or atheistic forces along with those engaged in immorality to push consciousness of sin out of the minds of today's society.

Two things must be done before they can completely succeed.

(1) They must do away with the tragedy which results from sin—the diseased bodies caused by dissipation, broken homes because of divorce, as well as the tragedies of envy, jealousy, murder.

(2) They must do away with the law given by God.

John was inspired to write, "Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law." (1 John 3:4)

Also, "All unrighteousness is sin..." (1 John 5:17) James wrote, "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth not, to him it is sin." (Jas. 4:17)

James informs us the word of God is the law. He stated, "For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a glass (Mirror, W.E.B.) ...But whoso looketh therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed." (Jas. 1:23-25)

Some are confused because they do not understand the difference between the law God gave Moses and the law of Christ. Paul taught, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster (tutor, ASV) to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after faith is come, we are no longer under the schoolmaster." (GAL. 3:24-25)

In the next verse Paul says the Galatians were children of God by faith. Faith came on the first Pentecost after the resurrection of Jesus. (Acts 2) Though the law of Moses has been abolished, let none think we are without law. If there is no law, there is no sin. All who live today would be free from sin.

Under the New Covenant, or Will or Testament Jeremiah the prophet said, "I will put my laws into their mind, and on their heart will I write them" (Jer. 31:33)

The inspired writers of the New Testament wrote the revelation placed in their minds by the Holy Spirit. Jesus said the Holy Spirit would guide them into all truth. (John 16:13) Peter said they received "all things which pertain unto life and godliness. (II Pet. 1:3) Paul said the Spirit's teaching would combine spiritual things with spiritual words." (I Cor. 2:13)

The words faith, gospel and law refer to the same thing in the New Testament. Jude said the "faith" is something for which to contend and something which was delivered. (Jude 3) Paul said the "gospel" is the power of God to save.

In the gospel is the righteousness of God. (Rom. 1:16-17) Of these things consist the law of Christ. They are things to believe and obey. The writer of the book of Hebrews said of Christ, "And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him" (Heb. 5:9)

No one lived the law of Moses perfectly. The law of Moses demanded perfection. To those who wanted to go back under the law Paul said, "...for if righteousness came by the law, then Christ died in vain." (Gal. 3:2) Without the cleansing blood of Christ no one would be free from sin. (Eph. 1:7)

Christ has laws or conditions to be met before the blood of Christ cleanses one of sin. Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mk. 16:16)

Mississippi Concert Hall features three classical works

Three classical works recorded around the state will be played on the next edition of "Mississippi Concert Hall," which is scheduled for broadcast on PRM at 9 a.m., Thursday, June 11. A repeat broadcast will air at 1 p.m., Sunday, June 14.

First, guitarist Giovanni di Chiaro of the University of Southern Mississippi plays Mauro Giuliani's Rossiniana, opus 120, No. 2. This performance was recorded at Hinds Jr. College in Raymond, April 30, 1987.

Next, Vernon Raines conducts the Meridian Symphony Orchestra in Josef Haydn's Symphony No. 82, "The Bear."

The last recording in this edition of "Mississippi Concert Hall" features pianist Bruce Levingston of New York City, a native of Cleveland, playing Franz Liszt's "Vallee d'Obermann" from Annees de Pelerinage. This performance was part of the inaugural concert at the Larry Thompson Center for the Fine Arts in Clarksdale, May 19, 1987.

"Mississippi Concert Hall" is hosted and produced by William Fulton. PRM, a division of Mississippi ETV, is broadcast at FM frequency 90.3, Biloxi.

NASA awards $9 million contract

NASA has selected the Lockheed Engineering and Management Services Company, Inc. of Houston, Texas for negotiations leading to award of a contract for technical support services for the Earth Resources Laboratory (ERL) at National Space Technology Laboratories in Hancock County. The award will be effective Aug. 1 for a two-year period. Estimated value of the cost-plus-award fee contract will be $9 million. The technical services will support ERL's mission of remote sensing research and development. These services will support scientific engineering laboratory field and data operations, including support in earth science research, remote sensing applications research and remote sensing commercialization, data systems, remote sensor systems, aircraft operations and common support activities. Lockheed Engineering and Management Services Company, Inc., was the incumbent technical support services contractor for ERL at NSTL. No other proposals were received.

Utility.....

"We have the cheapest gas rates on the coast, but we are one of the few cities on the coast with cathodic protection," he said. "We're not overcharging on gas, but we do tend to have a surplus each year, one reason is that you can't predict the weather and we try to budget a little more for gas than we anticipate needing." Longo said utilities was one of the matters discussed at the June 2 board of alderman meeting, although no action was taken. The mayor said he compared the rates with other cities on the coast, with the exception of Bay St. Louis where the city council approved a rate change Tuesday. According to Longo's findings, Pass Christian bases its sewerage and water rates on the first 5,000 used, charging a total of $13.08 with $4.51 for water and $8.57 for sewerage. Another .62 is added for each additional 1,000 used. Gas rates were not indicated. In Long Beach, the average residential flat rate is $29.85, with $6.79 for water, $8.16 for sewerage, $10.60 for sewage treatment and $4.50 for garbage. Biloxi charges $10 for the first 5,000 gallons of water used and adds $1 for each additional 1,000 gallons. Sewerage is calculated at 1.5 times the cost of water. In Gautier, which was recently incorporated and does not own its utility systems, water is $9.95 for the first 7,000 gallons and $1 for each additional 1,000 gallons, sewerage is $9.95 flat rate and sewage treatment is $3.50, and gas is $9.95 for the first 1,000 cubic feet with an additional $1 for each 100 cubic feet over the first 1,000. Longo said he feels that the city is competitive with other coastal cities and stated, "I think the future of Waveland is fantastically bright, and we owe it all to the people who make it possible: the citizens, aldermen and the staff, who are all very conscientious in their efforts."

COOLING THE COURTHOUSE—Air conditioner repairman Bill Pitcairn of Pitco, Inc., makes adjustments on the unit serving the Hancock County Courthouse Tuesday. The board of supervisors declared an emergency last week to have the unit, originally installed in 1974, repaired. Pitcairn did not have a final cost estimate Tuesday but said the repairs were more extensive than anticipated. His original estimate was at least $6,600. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette) ty Commission complaint against the school district after Waveland Elementary School Principal James Baldree, then her supervising principal, had stopped her from assigning her English class an essay on a black American during Black History Week. The teacher contended in her testimony that the essay and accompanying assignments in the same instructional unit were designed to teach students to use resource materials other than textbooks as references for the essay, but the principal contended that the black American topic constituted "teaching history in" an English class. The EEOC complaint and related letters were not in the personnel file originally given to Mitchell when she requested her records in order to prepare for the hearing, but were included in a second file found later by the district's central office staff.

I was surprised on Monday morning when I drove down Beach Boulevard at 7:30 a.m. and could see the area of the Beachfront Festival had just about been all cleaned up.

A few workers were doing some final touch-ups and the majority of the task had already been completed.

Our city leaders and workers should all be commended for a job well done.

Also our police department did a fine job at the festival on Sunday afternoon, as they were present all over the area.

One could not have asked for better weather for the event. Even though it was hot, a cool breeze helped festival goers.

We understand plans are already underway for next year's event.

The Democratic and Republican Primaries will be held in less than two months.

We know there are many residents of the area who have not taken the opportunity of registering to vote.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Concerned Citizens are all urging everyone eligible to register to vote.

A person must be registered 30 days prior to an election in order to vote. They must be 18 years of age the day prior to an election, a U.S. citizen and a resident of Hancock County.

Since our primaries will be held on August 4, if persons have not registered, they have only a few more days left for the big election.

A person can register at the Circuit Clerk's office at the Hancock County Courthouse, City Clerk's office in Bay St. Louis or Waveland during regular office hours.

The Circuit Clerk's office will hold several Saturday registrations at designated precinct locations in the county.

Further information can be obtained by calling the Circuit Clerk's office at 467-5265 Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. or the chamber's office at 467-9048.

We are glad to see the proposed improvements in process at Waveland's Garfield Ladner Memorial Pier.

I know the late Mayor Ladner would have been proud to see his city have such a fine facility.

I can recall when Mayor Ladner was first elected and I feel can say his city, as he served the community as its leader for 31 years.

We also know Mayor John Longo and Aldermen will be working very hard to complete the entire pier project.

I know from experience the pier is in an area where a large quantity of fish are caught each year.

We will be looking forward to the pier's construction.

A look back to the 1985 Hurricane Season... It can happen again!

In 1985, there were six hurricanes and five tropical storms in the Atlantic, Gulf and Caribbean. In this respect, it was a normal hurricane season (average is six hurricanes and four tropical storms). But for those who live in the Central Gulf Coastal States, they know differently because a total of four hurricanes struck them.

The first was Danny which moved into Louisiana on Aug. 15. There were three deaths and 50 million in damage...mainly due to flooding.

The next was the unpredictable storm named Elena. She forced evacuation of the Mississippi Coast twice before making landfall near Gulfport/Biloxi on Sept. 2. Four people were killed and total damage was near $1.5 billion.

Hurricane Juan stalled and looped for several days in late October near the Louisiana Coast. The death toll was 12 with damage...again mainly from floods...at $1.5 billion.

Kate was a rare November Hurricane which struck the Florida Panhandle on Nov. 21.

A normal season? Yes, in terms of numbers, but not in the number of people it affected in our area. And yes, it can happen again.

LIBRARY GIFT—Dr. William Bradford, president of the Hancock County Historical Society, presents to Prina Wamsick, director of the Hancock County Library System, a copy of "Hazelhurst: Copiah County, Mississippi." The book, edited by Hartwell Cook, is a gift from the editor and the local historical society and will be placed in the library system's Mississippi-Louisiana Collection.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Accident scene photo upsets reader

June 9, 1987
The Sea Coast Echo
To the Editor

Dear Sir,

As a faithful reader of The Sea Coast Echo, I found it very disturbing to find on the front page of the Sunday, June 7 edition, a rather large black and white picture of a four-year-old child being revived by medic personnel after a drowning accident.

Also, in this picture were grieving family members. How tasteless!!! Isn't it bad enough to lose a loved one, much less relive the nightmare by seeing it on the front page of a newspaper? When voting my opinion to Mr. Ellis Cuevas, publisher, I was told the picture was printed because there was no time to get details of this accident. But yet, there was time to have the film developed.

I also reminded him of similar incidents in previous editions. I was then told Bay St. Louis and Waveland have many swimming pools and by having this picture printed, it may remind parents to be more careful with their children.

Come on, Mr. Ellis, I don't know you have any experience in having to "babysit" a child, but a child can get away from you with a blink of an eye. It doesn't matter how careful you are. I know, I am a mother of two.

Let me hear from you mothers out there.

Sincerely,
Mary Jo Smith
Bay St. Louis

EDITOR'S NOTE: We are indeed in sympathy with the family members and friends of accident victims who must "relive" the tragedies through media accounts.

For this reason we are careful to avoid publication of photos we regard as too graphic, gruesome or tasteless.

Any first-responder—law enforcement officer, paramedic, fireman, tow-truck operator, reporter or photographer—can attest to the pain and suffering which are inevitable at almost all accident scenes.

We feel the general public is for the most part unaware of the degree of pain and suffering shared by the accident victims, their families and friends and those first-responders to the accident scene.

Therefore we feel, in addition to the inherent news value of an accident scene photo, that there is considerable value in publishing such photos since they raise the public's awareness of the potential for such accidents. We hope that the photos will serve in some degree as a preventative of future tragedies.

Band student feels release of director unjustified

June 4, 1987

Dear Editor:

I am a student and a band member of Bay Senior High School. I would like to express my opinion about the Bay-Waveland School Board. I think it is ridiculous to fire Ms. Lana Kay Jones because the band sat down during a parade.

That day we marched two parades. We marched for about five hours or more. We had thirty minutes to eat between parades. The School Board takes breaks, so why can't we take one?

Ms. Jones has really brought our band up. We have something to be proud of, and it seems like the board is cutting her and us down.

Two years ago at the Veteran's Day Parade, someone put a letter in the paper about us tearing up flags. We have more PRIDE than that! I know for a fact that we didn't do it because my group was the last to leave behind the band, and there were no flags on the ground.

Marching in parades is not as easy as some people think. Everyone needs to take a break sometimes, so why can't a bunch of teenagers do it?

Let's show PRIDE! Let's keep Ms. Lana Kay Jones!

Sincerely yours,
Denise Ray

Preying on tourists a non-profitable enterprise

June 3, 1987
Letters to the Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Bay St. Louis:

What can you be thinking?

Every morning I take a walk on the beach starting in front of the Big B store. Each morning, I leave my wrap-around skirt and rubber flip-flops and walk the strip of sand because I'm so happy to live here. As a housewife with kids, early morning is the only free time I have.

Now, whoever swiped my clothes this morning...let me tell you, you didn't get much: just an old outdated skirt, a well-worn pair of 50 cents shower shoes and a fairly new bottle of suntan oil. All together, I'd say your haul was worth about $1.99.

Not much loss to me, and I guess you're wondering why I'm bothering to write a letter at all.

I love this town. I'm third generation Bay St. Louis, with three behind me. It's appalling when you realize that our biggest bucks in the summertime comes from the tourist.

How many rich tourists will tolerate being preyed upon for very long? Come on, fellow citizens, use your heads...

Bay St. Louis has been a resort town since the beginning of America. Let's don't mean it up with thoughtless stealing. That just isn't profitable!

Sincerely,
Lucy Baker Wheelden
Bay St. Louis

Eyes on Mississippi

By Bill Minor

JACKSON—The reform forces in the Mississippi House who won the historic rules fight in the last session of the Legislature have already begun working to hold their troops together so they can consolidate their gains come next January.

Most of the 75 who supported the rules changes aimed at reducing the traditional power of the House speaker met here last Sunday to check their ranks following the Friday qualifying deadline to see how many had gotten by without opponents.

About half of the group were believed to have gotten by without having to make a race and only a dozen or so faced major challenges, according to early reports. Six of the original 75 are not seeking re-election to the House.

One key purpose of the weekend get-together, said Rep. Tim Ford of Tupelo, one of the reform group leaders who drew no opponent, was to "see how we can help each other get re-elected this summer."

Ford said some of the "help" would consist of getting precinct demographic data to the reform lawmakers, preparing newspaper ads and other campaign material, and finding ways to neutralize some of their opposition.

Apparently the 18 black members in the House, most of whom held on to their seats without a contest, are going to play a major part in behalf of their colleagues in the reform group by helping them get black support in their home districts.

"I think we can help other people in their campaigns," said Rep. Percy Watson of Hattiesburg, a black caucus member. The House Black Caucus, incidentally, met here on Saturday to talk about election-year strategy and assisting the House reform movement.

Inevitably, of course, the House 75 has begun dealing with their other major concern—who is going to be the next Speaker of the House. The first exploratory discussion about arriving at a consensus candidate came up at the weekend meeting but apparently that will be on hold until after the Aug. 4 primaries.

Those openly seeking the speakership include Rep. Ed Perry of Oxford, McComb, Ed Perry of Oxford, Mike Nipper of Grenada and the latest entry, Fred Dobbins of Leakeville.

Dobbins is the only one of the four who has opposition for re-election, facing four candidates drawn mostly as a result of the hot local issue in Greene County over locating a state satellite prison in the county, something Dobbins favored.

His candidacy for speaker, Dobbins said "is on hold until after the election." Meanwhile, he is believed to have corralled significant speakership backing from southeast Mississippi and coastal representatives.

"I didn't get interested in the speakers race until some people in the House from several surrounding counties came to me and asked me to make a bid for it," said Dobbins, who emerged as the floor leader for the income tax bill that narrowly failed to get a three-fifths majority needed for passage in the 1987 session.

Walman appears to have the most solid support among the House 75 at the moment, but substantially short of a majority. Perry, the veteran Appropriations chairman, had been one of the 45 House members who voted against the rules changes and may find it difficult winning support out of the ranks of the reformers.

Nipper, who had made an unsuccessful bid for speaker pro tem that was won by Rep. Cecil Simmons of Maben, after the new rules created the post, doesn't seem to have broad enough support for speaker.

Some had speculated when the session ended earlier this year that Simmons, while not a candidate for speaker, may wind up being drafted for the job if there is a deadlock.

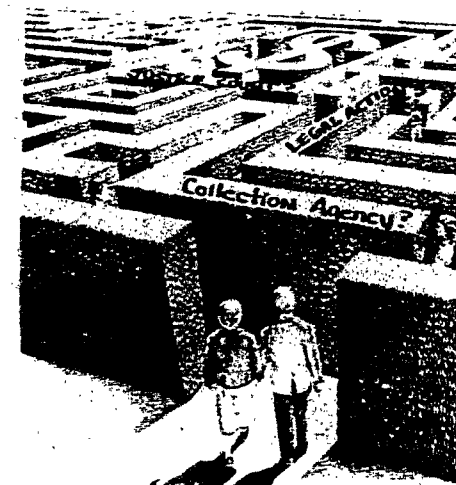

Several of the House 75 voiced the view, however, that they now consider it unlikely Simmons might be called upon to fill any other job than pro tem.

Meantime, the name of Rep. Rick Fortenberry of Meridian is beginning to emerge from the group as a possible consensus candidate for speaker.

Fortenberry, who says he is not a candidate, is getting high marks from several sources as the best strategist and leveling force among the several factions in the House 75.

The Maze of Debt Collection

What can a small businessman do?

•What the businessman needs to know about consumer laws.

•How to use the Justice Court System.

•What can I do about a bad check?

•Use of the Credit Bureau.

Hancock chamber offering debt collection seminar

"The Maze of Debt Collection" will be the topic of a seminar set for Thursday, June 18 from 7 to 8 p.m. at Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

The event is being sponsored by the chamber in cooperation with the Small Business Administration and SCORE, the Service Corps of Retired Executives.

The meeting will focus on what the small businessman can do about bad checks, what consumer laws he needs to know, how to use the Justice Court system, and use of the Credit Bureau.

Speakers for the evening will include Doty Overall, business specialist for the Small Business Administration, and Rhonda Patton, Hancock County Justice Court clerk.

The meeting is free of charge to the general public, and more information is available by contacting the chamber office at 467-9048.

Dedeaux resident seeks East Justice Court judgeship

EUGENE J. LADNER

ETV Brief

MS ROADS

From Port Gibson down to Picaune and up to Olive Branch, "Mississippi Roads" is traveling from one end of the state to the other this week. This rebroadcast can be seen at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, June 16, on Mississippi ETV. It was first aired in April.

The first stop of the evening is Port Gibson where viewers share a day in the life of Claiborne County Sheriff Frank Davis. ETV cameras follow him at work at the jail, courthouse and on the road.

At the Crosby Arboretum in Picaune, president Lynn Gammill, director Ed Blake and maintenance supervisor and botanist Chris Wells guide viewers on a tour of the arboretum, named in honor of the late L.O. Crosby, Jr., Mrs. Gammill's father.

Olive Branch in DeSoto County has a unique claim to fame: pool cues. Bob Meucel took the skills he learned from his father, a tool and dye maker, and applied them to the manufacture of pool cues. His cues are known for being perhaps the finest in the world, and they were even seen in the movie, "The Color of Money" with Paul Newman and Tom Cruise.

Eugene J. Ladner, 41, native of Hancock County and a life-long resident of Dedeaux community, is seeking the position of Justice Court Judge for East Hancock County.

Ladner is a 1984 graduate of Hancock North Central High School. He was a former employee of Gulf Coast Longhorns' association in Gulfport where he served as vice-president of the longhorns union for six years.

"I am ready and willing to be fair and just to all and to work cooperatively with all law officials," the candidate said in making his announcement.

Marsh, Breaux named to national Legion slots

Floyd J. Breaux Jr. and H. Jay Marsh, members of The American Legion Bourgeois-Stieffel-Ray Post 77, Waveland are serving national appointments received from National Commander James P. "Jimmy" Dean, the only Mississippian ever elected to that office.

Breaux has been appointed vice chairman, National Security Council, and Marsh has been named to the Americanism Committee.

Both have extensive records of service to The American Legion at all levels.

Breaux has been a member of The American Legion for 14 years. Offices held by him at the post level include executive committeeman, second vice commander, first vice commander and two terms as post commander. He is now the post adjutant, an office he has held for five years. He has also served as chairman of numerous committees.

For the Department of Mississippi, Breaux has served on the Foreign Relations Committee, as vice chairman, Constitution-Bylaws Committee, chairman of The Sons Of The American Legion and on several committees at the national headquarters.

FLOYD J. BREAU AND H. JAY MARSH

He is currently parade chairman for the Department of Mississippi at the National Convention to be held in San Antonio, Texas in August.

Marsh has been a member of Post 77 for 16 years. Offices he has filled there include sergeant-at-arms, first vice commander, adjutant, post commander and executive committeeman.

Among the committees he has presided over as chairman are Legionnaire of the Year, Citizen of the Year Awards, Memorial Day Committee and Boys' State Committee.

On the district level, Marsh has served as commander of the Ninth District (the last time that district has reached the 100 percent membership goal) and as district executive committeeman.

Marsh has served at the state level on the Americanism Committee, Membership Committee, Civil Defense Committee, Boys' State Committee, and has been chairman of Complaints and Appeals Committee and the Public Relations Committee and is currently chairman of the "Mississippi Legionnaire" Committee.

He has been a delegate to national headquarters at Indianapolis twice on the Membership Committee.

CONSTITUTION CONTEST—Brandon Lewis, 131 Keller Avenue, Bay St. Louis, is the first to enter a contest sponsored by The Friendship Oak Chapter National Society Daughters of the American Revolution being conducted as part of the chapter's celebration of the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Federal Constitution. This contest is open to children of third grade level and younger who are asked to submit a drawing or painting of a flower or a vegetable as seen in Colonial gardens. Entries which must be received by June 30 may be mailed or brought to Natick Arts Studio, 111 Main Street, Bay St. Louis. Lewis holds a green tomato in his left hand and his entry, a multi-color drawing entitled 'The Green Tomato,' in his right hand. All entries in this category will be judged by Mrs. A. C. Hutto Jr., of Gulfport. The winner will receive a $50 Savings Bond. (Photo by Ellis Cuevas)

Pass school system seeking bus drivers

The Pass Christian School System is currently taking applications for bus drivers for the 1987-88 school year.

Candidates must be 18 years of age, in good physical and mental health, and available to work early mornings and afternoons.

Applicants will be scheduled for a two-day driver's school, required by the State, to be held during the summer.

Interested persons should contact Robert White, Transportation Supervisor, at 452-7375. Applications may be picked up at the District Administration Office on West North Street.

All applicants will be considered without regard to sex, race, religion, or national origin.

Joint Chiefs chairman to speak in Gulfport

Congressman Trent Lott reports that Admiral William J. Crowe, Jr., chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has accepted an invitation from the Gulfport Area Chamber of Commerce to speak at its ninth annual Salute to Military.

The event will be Thursday, Oct. 1, at Mississippi Coast Convention Center.

Admiral Crowe is the senior military advisor to President Ronald Reagan and the National Security Council.

He was commander of the U.S. Middle East forces in the Persian Gulf as well as NATO forces in Southern Europe. He was also commanding officer of all U.S. forces in the Pacific.

A native of Oklahoma, Admiral Crowe is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and holds a master's degree in education from Stanford University and a Ph.D. in politics from Princeton University.

Highway Patrol names top investigator

JACKSON—David R. Huggins, an 18-year veteran officer, has been named director of the Mississippi Highway Patrol's Criminal Investigation Bureau (CIB).

The position is that of chief investigator for the Highway Patrol and has the rank of major.

Commissioner of Public Safety, James L. Roberts Jr., in announcing the promotion, said Huggins fills the position formerly held by Walter Tucker, who resigned from the agency at the end of May to become chief of police in Meridian.

Huggins, 39, is a native of Corinth and resided in Jackson from 1975 until 1980. His appointment is effective June 1.

The CIB, Enforcement Division and Driver Services Bureau are the three major divisions making up the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

The bureau is authorized 50 investigators and supervisory personnel who have general police powers to enforce all laws of the State of Mississippi.

As chief investigator, Huggins is charged with overseeing criminal investigations and related functions of the CIB's Records and Identification Branch, gun permit, brands, and polygraph sections, and correctional intelligence and livestock theft divisions.

"This officer is well-known in Mississippi for his tenaciousness in pursuing the criminal element," Roberts said.

"He moved out of the Highway Patrol's uniformed division 12 years ago, and since that time has worked extensively with federal, state, county and municipal officers in the investigation of felony crimes," the commissioner said.

He said Huggins played a significant role in the FBI's operation "Silverado" last year in Mississippi, which resulted in approximately 400 arrests in seven states.

"Major Huggins has the reputation of exhausting every possible avenue to see that felony crimes are solved. I am grateful we have an officer of his calibre to place in command of such an important part of the criminal justice system in this state," Roberts said.

Huggins was one of two officers tested for the chief investigator's position under Merit Promotion System guidelines.

The newly named major was commissioned into patrol service as a trooper in 1969, assigned to the Tunica area. He served from 1971 until 1975 in the Senatobia area, and was assigned to Executive Security in 1976. He became director of the Criminal Investigation Bureau in 1978, where he served until 1980, when he moved from Jackson to Corinth as an investigator. He has worked in the northern region as an investigator since 1980.

In 1976, Huggins was selected to study specialized criminal investigative techniques at Scotland Yard sponsored by the University of London.

A graduate of Biggersville High School, Huggins attended Northeast and Northwest Mississippi junior colleges, the University of Mississippi, and the University of Southern Mississippi.

He served from 1968 until 1974 in the Army National Guard's Howitzer Battalion, 108th Artillery Unit, where he attained the rank of sergeant.

Huggins is a member of the Tennessee-Mississippi Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association, the Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee Investigators Association, and serves as a member of the Law Enforcement Coordinating Committee (LECC) for the United States Attorney's Office in the Northern District of Mississippi.

The newly appointed major and his wife, the former Judy Monroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Monroe of Corinth, have two daughters, Rebecca and Vickie. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huggins, reside in Corinth.

NSTL named in 1987 space legislation

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Senate has approved a measure which would enable Mississippi's National Space Technology Laboratories (NSTL) near Bay St. Louis to play a major role in the development of a new space launch vehicle.

Senate Appropriations Committee Chairman John Stennis said that the measure was passed as a part of the 1987 Supplemental Appropriation Bill.

Stennis inserted the language mandating use of NASA testing facilities for advanced rocket engine and booster development because of NSTL's "far superior facilities for performing the testing requirements."

"To perform this work elsewhere would require costly and useless duplication of facilities," Stennis said. "NSTL is in an excellent position to perform this work and it makes sense that we should make that matter clear. No where else could this work be done as effectively and efficiently."

The Department of Defense and NASA are jointly studying development of a second generation reusable space transportation cargo vehicle.

A decision on whether NASA or the U.S. Air Force will be the lead agency in development of the vehicle and engines has not yet been made, but the Stennis language will require use of NSTL for the engine testing regardless of which agency is selected.

Stennis said the project would create an estimated 1,400 jobs at the Mississippi site within 10 years and would involve about 1,000 construction workers during the building phase.

"NSTL has a splendid record of accomplishment," Stennis said. "Our country will be best served through a plan requiring that the work be done there."

Weekly State Crop Report

(Covering week of May 30-June 5)

Soybean producers scramble to meet planting deadline

MISSISSIPPI STATE—For the state's soybean producers, hoping to plant 2.1 million acres, planting season has become a frustrating "on again, off again" situation.

With scattered, sometimes heavy, showers occurring across much of the state the past several weeks, many producers have faced repeated delays and for some ideal planting time is running out.

Ideally, the majority of the crop should be planted by the first week of June, said Dr. Nathan McKinney, an agronomist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

"I would guess that right now we have 50 to 60 percent of the crop planted," McKinney said. "Compared to the 10-year planting average, we really are not too far behind, but without some good planting conditions, producers will get behind."

The recommended planting dates for soybeans end June 10 in the northern part of the state and June 15 for south Mississippi.

"Producers in north Mississippi start losing an average of seven-tenths of a bushel, per day in yield potential for each day they plant after June 15."

On the brighter side, drier weather is in the forecast and with producers ready to enter the fields, planting could be back on schedule within a few days.

"Right now, producers just need some good planting conditions," the agronomist said. "If we get the rest of the crop planted next week, I think we have prospects for a very good crop."

"Despite all the price problems, producers have much better prospects for good yields than they did this time last year," McKinney said.

In related agriculture news across the state, county Extension agents reported flooding in some fields and drought conditions in others.

In Hinds County, Extension Agent

Willie Bullock said moisture conditions were very short in some fields.

"Crop conditions in the county are from fair to good," Bullock said. "Major activities are hay making, insect control and soybean planting."

Leflore County Agent Carl Wilbourn said some producers were having to replant soybeans due to wet soils, but most planting and replanting should be completed by next week.

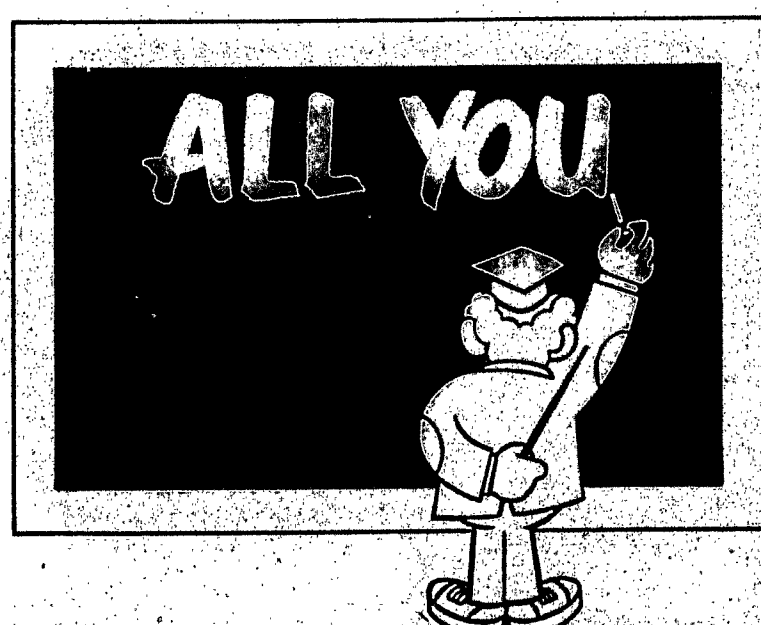

Carroll County Agent George Alley said soil moisture is good and 75 percent of the county's 10,000 acres of soybeans are already up to a stand.

In Scott County, Extension agent Bill Goodwin said the county's cotton that was planted on time looks good, but weed control is a problem because of wet fields.

Greene County Agent Barry Wallace said county crops need a good general rain.

"Soybean planting is behind schedule, but few acres of the crop will be planted in the county this year," Wallace said.

County school district selected to participate in state telecommunications pilot project

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
The Hancock County School District is participating in an electronic communication pilot project between school districts and the Mississippi Department of Education.

One of only 45 school districts chosen for the Mississippi Education Link Project, the county school district will be able to have direct communications with a regional service officer in the state department through the use of an Apple Computer and related equipment.

Participation in the project will cost the school district a one-time equipment fee of $1,880 which reflects a 40 percent savings from the educational contract price of $3,550.

The equipment will belong to the school district when the year-long project is completed.

Through this project the state department will learn about the potential of using telecommunications for communicating with local school districts.

In addition to the communication link with the state department and the equipment, school districts will receive the benefit of training on how to use microcomputers to improve the areas of office management and word processing.

Training will also be provided in using Apple Link, a national telecommunications system which will allow participants to send and receive electronic mail from the state department and other participants.

Superintendent Terrell Randolph said participation in the project will have many advantages for the school district in addition to the direct communication.

The school board unanimously approved the school district's participation in the project at a recent meeting.

Also at the meeting the school board authorized the advertisement for a six-classroom addition to be constructed at Gulfview Elementary School.

Superintendent Terrell Randolph told the board this addition is included in the overall building program and can be funded from existing county funds to be used in the program.

He also said the addition is not built soon, the district will be faced with purchasing more classroom trailers to house the increasing number of students in the district.

This will be the second classroom addition at Gulfview in two years, the first eight-classroom addition was completed in the fall of the 1986-87 school year.

Also included in the advertisement authorization is a covered walkway to extend from the new elementary building to the gym.

The board discussed the establishment of several committees to get more input from the community on projects, including bond expenditures, design, student awards and discipline.

Board members are expected to submit names of concerned citizens and school officials to serve on these committees at a future meeting.

Central Office personnel for the 1987 fiscal year were also approved at the meeting. They are Lynel Ladner, bookkeeper; Jan Haas, accounts payable/data processing; Jeanne S. Klein, clerk typist; Tina Necaise, clerk typist; Cynthia Ladner, administrative secretary; Sue Dean, superintendent's secretary; Carrie Candebat, receptionist/insurance clerk; Greg Jones, business manager; and Kneea Scaffidi, school food supervisor.

Also approved for employment for the 1987-88 school year were all district non-certified personnel including secretaries, maintenance workers, teachers' aides and janitors.

Non-certified employees approved to be rehired for the 1987-88 school year at Charles B. Murphy Elementary School are Cindy Doyle, Lucy Mitchell, Catherine Doby, Geraldine Foxworth, Ann Mitchell, Rose Acker, Virginia Doby, Becky McArthur, Andrea Gaudin, Walter Acker, Ivory Jackson, Sunny Palode, Marietta Hover and Ruby Mitchell.

Gulfview Elementary school non-certified employees for the next school year approved at the meeting are Kathy Davis, Lori Herrman, Barbara Ladner, Lois Evans, Irene Ritchie, Richard Patterson, Genette Butsch, Rita Davis, Barbara Lafontaine, Elaine Lafontaine, Debelle Lafontaine, Betty Luxich, Cindy Ladner, Connie Sellier, Maria Smith, Ann Wainwright, Millie Breun, Winnie Carver and Iris Hughes.

Approved for reemployment at Hancock North Central Elementary School as non-certified workers are Marlene Ladner, Susan Ladner, Pat Ladner, Cheryl Necaise, Sandra Wicktom, Barbara Larsen, Evelyn Jacob, Lucy Wheeldein, Trudy Cuevas, Glenda Davis, Annette Ladner, Cindy Ladner, Shirley E. Lee, Mary Odom, Judy Rawls, Brenda Shaw, Christine Spence and Veronica Ladner.

Hancock North Central High School non-certified workers approved for reemployment are Billy Ladner, Deron Cuevas, Doris Glass, Lameitra Ladner, Linda Wedgeworth, Melanie Ladner, Robert Bennett, Connie Perkins, Lydia Stafford, Elaine Bourgeois, Zelma Perkins, Will Mae Necaise and Robert Sams.

In other business the board:

—Approved the resignation of Leesa W. Ladner as Chapter I Aide at Hancock North Central Elementary effective May 13.

—Approved the resignation of Linda Sanders as elementary teacher at Hancock North Central effective at the end of the school year.

—Approved the resignation of James B. Harvey as math teacher Gulfview Elementary effective June 1.

—Approved a recommendation to employ Charlotte Johnson as related studies teacher at the Pearl River

Vocational-Technical Facility for the 1987-88 school year.

—Approved a recommendation to employ Cindy Doyle for Cheerleader Sponsor for Charles B. Murphy Elementary School for the 1986-87 school year retroactive to the beginning of the 1986-1987 school year.

—Approved a recommendation to employ Linda Wedgeworth at Hancock North Central for the month of June to complete work for the Instructional Management Program for the 1987-88 school year.

—Approved a recommendation to employ Thelma Althia Ladner as substitute janitor at Hancock North Central for the remainder of the 1986-87 school year.

—Approved a recommendation that the Staff Development Requirements have been completed by all principals in the District for the 1986-87 school year.

—Approved a proposed Staff Development Plan for 1987-88 School Year for the Hancock County School District.

—Approved an Adult Education Application for the 1987-88 school year for the School District.

—Approved a request to advertise for bids for supplies and services for the 1987-88 school year for the Hancock County School District.

—Approved a leaseholder request to cancel 16th Section lease in the name of Aubrey Sanders for 105 acres in Section 17-5-15.

—Approved Docket of Claims for the month of May numbers 001066 through 001224.

The school board's next meeting will be Monday, June 15 at the superintendent's office at Stennis International Airport.

At this meeting, bids will be opened for a $5.6 million bond sale, which will provide funding for the district's building program, including a new junior-senior high school.

LIONESS INSTALLATION

Bay St. Louis Lioness Club will install officers at a 7 p.m. meeting Monday, June 15, Cimeron Steak House, Waveland.

POSSIBLE MURDER WEAPONS—Riviera Productions Artistic Director David Lucas, left, suggests poison as the weapon for carrying out Friday night's "A Taste of Murder" while Dante-by-the-Bay owner Her Pope shows him her preference, a knife from the restaurant's kitchen. "A Taste of Murder", with

rocktails at 7 p.m. and dinner at 7:30, is an audience participation production that will allow spectators to witness and then solve a crime. Reservations are $25 each and can be obtained by calling 467-2332. Proceeds from the event will benefit Riviera Productions. (Staff photo by Dena Blissette)

FESTIVAL POSTER—This hand-screened poster by Nadine Stamm of Bay St. Louis is the official poster for the 1987 Beachfront Festival. The limited-edition posters, are signed and only a few remain available. Stamm, an owner of Nadie Arts in Bay St. Louis, says it took more than two weeks to complete the poster, entitled The Great Blue Heron.

St. Stanislaus honors tennis, track, baseball athletes

St. Stanislaus recognized the athletes involved in the tennis, track and baseball programs with an awards barbeque at the SSC Ski Lodge.

Those members of the Varsity Tennis team who received awards include Philip Pratt, "A" Singles, Most Valuable Player; David Bourgeois, "A" Mixed Doubles, letter jacket; Steve Bouis, "A" Mixed Doubles, letter jacket, Most Consistent Award; Michael Cromwell, "B" Doubles, Hustle Award; and Marco Lau, "A" Doubles, letter jacket, Most Consistent Award.

As a team, the SSC Tennis squad finished the year with a 10-2 won-loss record, with the doubles tandem of Bouis and Lau going undefeated for the season. The team, under the direction of Head Coach Myron Labat, has compiled a 21-3 record over the past two seasons.

"We will certainly miss the experience and leadership of senior Steve Bouis, Marco Lau and Scott Comeaux, but we have a good nucleus of young players who are willing to work hard to improve their

BASEBALL—Joe Welsh, Best Glove; Grant Kohnke, Coach's Hustle Award; William Scarborough, Most Improved; Jay Artigues, Most Outstanding Hitter; and Rocky Rhodes and Tom Zant, Most Improved.

TENNIS—Philip Pratt, Most Valuable Player; David Bourgeois and Steve Bouis, Most Consistent Award;

Mike Cromwell, Hustle Award; Marco Lau, Most Consistent Award.

TRACK—Mike Casano placed third in state in pole vault, and Keith Robinson fifth in state 880-yard run.

games. Next year should prove to be as exciting as this past season," commented Labat.

Award winners on the Varsity Baseball Team include Louis Schuff, Best Glove Award; Tom Zant and William Scarborough, Most Improved; Grant Kohnke, Coach's Hustle Award; Jay Artigues, Most Outstanding Hitter.

In track, St. Stanislaus had two performers who placed in the state meet held in Jackson. Mike Casano, a junior, finished third in the state in the pole vault with a height of 10'6", and Keith Robinson placed fifth in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:04.53.

Head Track Coach Vernon Powell stated that it has been many years since SSC had two athletes place high enough in district competition to attend the state meet, and having both young men finish in the top five in the state was "quite an accomplishment."

Red Cross sponsoring Stanislaus swim courses

American Red Cross is sponsoring summer swimming lessons at the St. Stanislaus High School swimming pool under direction of Brother Albert Ledet, SC.

Beginner course is scheduled June 15-19 from 1 to 2 p.m. Beginners must be at least in the second grade. Other programs dates include Advanced Beginners, June 22-30; Intermediates, July 1-10; Swimmers, July 13-22.

An Advanced Life Saving Course in which participants must be at least 15 and qualify as "strong swimmers" is scheduled July 27-Aug. 7.

Hours for the Advanced Life Saving Course will be from 1 to 3 p.m. each day. A $15 donation is requested for this course, Brother Ledet reported.

In addition, an advanced swimmer course for advanced life savers is scheduled from 1 to 3 p.m. Aug. 10-14.

Adult Beginner Course is scheduled from 8 to 9 p.m. Aug. 3-14.

For information call Brother Ledet at 467-9057.

BET
YOU
KNOW

Brought To You
By Jim Henrie

It's easy to guess which 2 players have hit the most home runs in big league baseball history—Frank Aaron and Bube Ruth—but who ranks No. 3, No. 4 and No. 5 on the all-time home run list? The man who hit the third-most homers in major league history, after Aaron and Ruth, is Willie Mays. No. 4 is Frank Robinson and No. 5 is Harmon Killebrew.

Which sports event in America draws the biggest one-day paid attendance every year? Answer is the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race. Their attendance ranges between 250,000 and 300,000 every year, and no other sports attraction gets that many paying fans at one time at the site of the event.

Has any player ever played ALL 9 positions in one major league baseball game? Oddly enough, it has happened. Bert Campaneris did it for the A's in a game in 1965, and Cesar Tovar did it for the Twins in a game in 1968.

I bet you didn't know...in addition to auto parts, auto repair, and exhaust work, the fine folks at "Auto World" can assemble your hydraulic hoses while you wait. We're under the flag.

USM track has best finish ever

HATTIESBURG—Southern Mississippi's track and field team recently wrapped up the season with a best-ever fifth place finish in the Metro Conference Championships held in Columbia, S.C.

"I am pleased with our finish," eighth year head coach Marshall Bell said. "I think we have a solid foundation to build bigger and better things for the future."

Favored Florida State ran up a total of 198 points to win its 11th consecutive Metro title. South Carolina finished second with 140, followed by Cincinnati with 119, Virginia Tech 102, USM 42, Memphis State 37 and Louisville 14.

The Golden Eagles had strong performances from freshman Robert Johnson who finished second in the 400 meter run. Johnson, also a member of the 4 x 100 meter relay team, helped the Eagles to a third place finish in that event.

"We were a young team with a lot of freshmen this season," Bell said. "We had our inconsistencies throughout the season because we depended on our freshmen. But once we got to the Metro, our runners ran their best."

Other Golden Eagles finishes included: Triple jump—Don Garrett, 4th, 47'4"; high jump—Dwayne Packer, 5th, 6'8"; discus—Shawn Wilson, 5th, 139'4"; and Willie DeJarnette, 6th, 134'9"; 4 x 100 relay—USM, 4th, 41.30; decathlon—Douglas Knight, 4th, 4,917; Dwayne Packer, 5th, 4,401; and Shawn Leland, 6th, 4,102; shot put—Greg Ellzey, 5th, 46'2"; and Shawn Wilson, 6th, 45'11"; and 10,000 meters—Matt Carpenter, 4th, 31:27.15.

South Carolina's Anthony Bennon was named the Metro's outstanding athlete and coach-of-the-year honors went to Charlie Young also of South Carolina.

Now that the season is over, Bell is concentrating on recruiting. "Our recruiting is going well right now," Bell said. "We want to sign people who can come in and contribute to the program right away."

"With the people we have returning and some good recruits, our future looks even brighter."

Boat registration numbers to change

JACKSON—Changes are coming for Mississippi boatowners.

Effective July 1, anyone renewing or transferring a boat registration will receive a new boat registration number, according to state conservation officials.

"That means boatowners will have to change the letters and numbers on their boats when they renew or transfer their registration," said Joe Stone, executive director of the Mississippi Department of Wildlife Conservation.

"This new system goes into affect July 1, but boatowners don't have to change their numbers until their registration is actually renewed," said Stone.

The new numbering system will help avoid duplication of registration numbers, while easing record-keeping, law enforcement, and the recovery of stolen boats.

Once new numbers are issued, a boat will keep the same number as long as it is registered in Mississippi, even if the boat is traded, sold, or transferred.

All boats propelled by machinery of any type must be registered with the Department of Wildlife Conservation. Owners should look for their new numbers when they receive their registration certificate.

The law requires that registration numbers be displayed on the boat with letters and numerals at least three inches high and of a contrasting color to the hull.

The fee for a two-year registration is $2.50.

Legion kids fishing rodeo set for June 20

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The Third Annual Kids Fishing Rodeo sponsored by the Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Post No. 139 of Bay St. Louis has been set for Saturday, June 20.

Pewee Ledeaux, rodeo chairman, reports scales will be open from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Legion's Pier at the head of Washington Street.

Trophies and awards will be presented at 3:30 p.m.

Competition is open to boys and girls 13 years old and under.

There will be a special crab division for the younger entrants. Fishing will be from shoreline and piers only in an area from the mouth of Jourdan River to Bayou Cadet.

Trophies will be awarded in nine categories in addition to a prize for all participants.

No prior registration is necessary and each participant will receive a free hot dog and coke.

Some of the prizes will be donated from local merchants, Dedeaux stated.

Legion and Auxiliary members will conduct the fishing rodeo.

Billy Taylor, post commander, said the Legion's pier will be closed to boat launching on the day of the kids fishing rodeo for the safety of the children.

Hunter safety courses to satisfy legislated license requirements

By EDGAR H. PEREZ

Mississippi Wildlife Conservation Department is offering four-session hunter safety programs at Hancock County Library, US-90, Bay St. Louis.

The programs are being sponsored by the department as a result of new legislation which becomes effective Jan. 1 requiring all persons born after Jan. 1, 1972 to obtain a hunter safety certificate as a prerequisite to getting a hunting license.

The courses will include three evening sessions at the library from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. and a hands-on shooting instruction session at a Bayou LaCrosse range on Saturdays.

Guns and ammunition will be provided at the range session, according to Antoine Boyd of Waveland, instructor, who is certified by both the National Rifle Association and the Wildlife Department as a hunting safety instructor.

Sports Brief

BASKETBALL CAMP

POPLARVILLE—The Pearl River College Wildcat Basketball Camp for grades 6 through 12 will be held July 6-10 on the PRC campus.

All campers will register from 8-9 a.m. on Monday, July 6. The cost for a full-time camper is $90, which includes housing, meals, insurance, awards and T-shirts.

A day camper, with no housing and one meal per day, will pay $80. Day campers will leave at 5 p.m. daily, however, they may return after the evening meal if they have their own transportation.

Pearl River Wildcat coach Peter Georgian said camp activities will be supervised by the camp staff, comprised of outstanding high school coaches. Members of the PRC Wildcat basketball team will serve as camp counselors.

For more information contact Georgian at Station JA, Box 269, Poplarville, MS 39470 or call 601-795-4397.

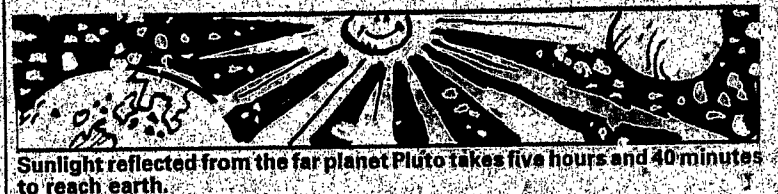

Coast Guard offering new directory of boating information

The Coast Guard reports the availability of a new reference book of boating information sources.

The reference book, entitled "Boating Information: A Bibliography and Source List," lists over 1,300 descriptive entries of books, pamphlets, reports, articles, films, and video tapes containing useful information about recreational boating. The book has sections to retrieve information by title, author, or subject, and provides information on how to obtain the source works cited.

The bibliography has been compiled by the American Boat & Yacht Council, Inc. under a Coast Guard Boating Safety Grant, and is available to the public at cost. Copies may be obtained postpaid by sending a $15 check or money order to ABYC, P.O. Box 866, Amityville, NY 11701.

Sellers claims against bankrupt buyer

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some legal rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your rights.)

Q: What are my rights as a storeowner if I have sold merchandise on credit to a customer who files bankruptcy?

A: If a storeowner has sold goods on credit, and the purchaser files bankruptcy without having paid for the goods, the storeowner generally has the same rights in the bankruptcy proceedings as any other general unsecured creditor.

He must file a claim with the bankruptcy court, and will receive payment from the bankrupt's unsecured assets along with all other general creditors. He does not usually have a special right to retake the goods.

However, a storeowner may be entitled to additional protection in certain limited circumstances. If a storeowner has sold goods to a buyer on credit and then discovers that the buyer was insolvent, the storeowner may reclaim the merchandise if he sends to the buyer a written demand for return of the goods.

The demand must be sent within ten days of the date that the buyer purchased the goods. This law also provides a limited protection in bankruptcy for sellers who have sold goods to someone within ten days of the time that bankruptcy is filed.

Thus, if a merchant sells goods on March 1 to a buyer who files bankruptcy on March 5, the seller can reclaim the goods by making a written demand for their return by March 11.

Aside from this protection, a storeowner who wants to be able to reclaim goods sold on credit must keep a security interest in the goods sold. He must enter into a written agreement with the buyer which provides that the seller will have a security interest in the goods to secure payment of the purchase price.

The seller must also then file what is called a financing statement in the appropriate state or local office indicating that he has a security interest in the goods.

If these two steps are taken the seller will be able to claim priority in the goods even if the buyer files bankruptcy.

Successful techniques for fishing submerged weeds

Most productive bass sportsmen know that surface weeds provide excellent cover for bass. Likewise, submerged weeds can also be home to more than oneunker. The key to fishing submerged weeds is to think of them as structure, i.e., as bass "magnets."

If you could categorize types of submergent weeds, there would be shallow (less than two feet), and deep (more than two feet). And the technique of fishing these two types differs slightly.

According to Ken Cook, member of the Evinrude Pro Team staff, "If it's visible grass a foot or so under water, I like to take a spinner bait, make long casts, and run it to cover a lot of water in a cast. You can see 'holes' in the grass or weeds. Kind of flutter the spinner bait down into the hole and then rip it up through that grass. That triggers a strike because of the stop-and-go changing of the speed of the spinner bait—and it's right in the hole where the bass likes to be.

A lot of times under that situation, if you're fishing a spinner bait, you can fish it pretty fast over the top of the grass. The bass that are down in the grass will have just a "window" or "hole" to look through, and I find that bass tend to miss a spinner bait a lot in that situation. So, it's really important under that condition to use a trailer hook.

Bass, like other aquatic predators, relate to edges, and a sharp edge between open water and grass is an important place to fish for bass. Edges, then, are the key to unlock the door to fishing submerged weeds successfully. Locate grass edges on points, in bays or in isolated patches on any body of water. And in the summer, pine out of 10 bass can be found on deep water weed structure.

"Say the grass bed is eight feet under water," Cook continues, "you take a crankbait that runs at seven feet and you run it along so it ticks the tops of the grasses occasionally. This way, you fish the edge of the cover most effectively."

Other techniques include the use of markers to pinpoint the shallow edge of deep structure (which is usually where the smaller bass can be caught) as well as its length (to establish the "line"). Once you ascertain the length and location of the submerged weed line, locate its points as well as nooks and you've identified potential hotspots.

Fish the "line" in one direction with one lure and return down the line with a different one. Let's say working up it with a No. 7 Count-down Rapala and return back down the line with a six-inch grub, eel or worm.

The combination of submerged weeds, proper lure selection and rotation, and effective lure presentation can make you a winner!

Not all two cycle oils for your outboard are created equal. According to engineers at Cilco Petroleum Corporation, the engineers recently completed a survey of the sulfated ash content of several popular two-cycle oils. The study showed

Johnson and Evinrude brand two-cycle oils had near zero ash content, far below most others.

Two other brands registered as many as 240 and 415 parts per million of sulfated ash content. Sulfated ash, according to the engineers, is cumulative poison in an engine. Ash deposits can cause pre-ignition, interrupt the flow of the air/fuel mixture through the combustion chamber and change the compression ratio of the engine.

USM golfers finish second

HATTIESBURG—The University of Southern Mississippi golf team surprised just about everyone except team members and coach Jimmy Carpenter with a strong second place finish in the recent Metro Conference Golf Championships at Wexford Golf Club on Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Following the tournament, Carpenter, in his second year as head coach, said "We have to be totally satisfied with our finish. It was as good as anyone could have expected. To finish behind nationally ranked Florida State is quite a feat, and the second place finish is the best ever in the Metro for a USM golf team."

"We were only six shots off the pace after the first round and still very much in contention after two rounds, just seven shots behind Florida State. If we had had a better fourth score to add to our total in those first two rounds we really could have put more pressure on the Seminoles and you never know what might happen."

USM's Gary March was tied for medalist honors after the first round with a 73 and stood all alone in first place after two rounds with a 141 total.

His final round 75 was good enough for third place overall, just three shots behind medalist Nolan Henke of Florida State.

March and teammates Glen Hnatuk (4th at 217) and Jeff Jennings (6th at 221) all were named to the six player All-Metro squad.

Other USM finishers and their scores included Richard Walsh in 27th place at 240 and Voyed Couey in 31st place at 244. Teams played five players each day, counting the top four scores toward team totals.

The conference tournament will return to Hilton Head next year for a third straight year.

USM wins PR awards

JACKSON—The University of Southern Mississippi public relations staff won three awards in annual news and broadcast competition among state institutions of higher learning.

The USM News Services Office, headed by Phil Hearn, won two first-place awards and one second-place award during the 1987 spring conference of the College Public Relations Association of Mississippi May 28-29.

Competing among senior institutions across the state, USM won one first-place award in the newsletter category for publication of "Update," the university's eight-times-a-year publication for faculty and staff.

USM also won a first-place award in the special edition category for news stories, features and photographs furnished to newspaper for a special 75th anniversary edition.

The USM news staff won a second-place award for production of a radio show of five minutes or less. The winning episode of the weekly "Update," produced by Steve Rouse and hosted by Hearn, focused on an annual turkey-calling seminar held on the USM campus.

In addition, assistant news editor Sharon Ward, who served as editor of the Update newspaper, was elected to the OPRAM Board of Directors for the 1987-88 year.

New officers of the association include Lin Wright of Mississippi State University, president.

Bay Catholic students compete in field day events

PRACTICING their class cheer are, from left, third graders Bryan Lee, Josh Ladner, Casey Heltmann and Thalus Ladner. The boys and the rest of their class won first place in spirit trophy competition at the annual Bay Catholic Elementary School Field Day at St. Stanislaus Field. Sixth grade placed second and first grade took third in the spirit competition, which was conducted prior to the eight athletic events of the day. Opening ceremonies featured an invocation by Father Johnny Planea and a school song. The field day closed with an awards ceremony and presentation of flowers from Principal Ann Allen and the student body to physical education teacher Jean Ann Thriftley, who coordinated the event.

RUNNERS Elliot Witte, left, Derek Bradley, center, and Mark Gagnon take their marks for a relay race. The three were part of the first grade team.

Staff photos by
Dena Lynn Bisnette

FIRST GRADER Michelle Favre walks the balance beam in the obstacle course event, which also included running through tires, pushing a wheelbarrow without dropping a soccer ball out of it and crawling through a tunnel.

BO FAVRE, a second grade student, leaps high to avoid being touched during a game of dodgeball, one of the noncompetitive sports at Bay Catholic Elementary School's recent field day.

HOPPING ALONG in a sack race, third grade girls try to keep moving without falling down. Other events at the Bay Catholic Elementary School Field Day included 75-yard dash, softball throw, broad jump, soccer dribble, basketball throw, horseshoes and obstacle course.

Pearl River College trustees pass 10 percent tuition hike

Pearl River College's Board of Trustees have approved a 10 percent tuition and other minimum fee increases for the 1987-88 school year.

Full-time Pearl River students will pay $275 per semester for tuition this fall, while part-time students will pay $28 per semester hour.

Last year's tuition, the lowest in the state, was $250 per semester and $25 per hour for part-time students.

Dr. Ted J. Alexander, president of Pearl River College, told the board that the increases could possibly produce an additional $96,000 for the college.

Dr. Alexander also stated that PRC would still remain one of the lowest cost institutions of all of Mississippi's Senior and Junior Colleges.

Out-of-state fees will increase from $275 to $300 per semester and the non-day meal plan will jump from $140 to $70.

The five-day room and board semester fee increased from $600 to $670 and the seven-day plan increased from $685 to $770.

These fees are based on increased food and utility costs. It will cost the student an average of $1.89 per meal.

The Pearl River Board also approved a $266 five-day dorm and cafeteria plan for the eight-week summer session. A bus pass for the eight-week summer session will cost $45 while the noon meal plan is $62.

In other action, the PRC board approved final payment to B. & H. Oilfield Contractors Inc. in the amount of $1,340 for land clearing.

Commended the Dixie Drawl staff and its advisor, Larry Stanford, for winning the Mississippi Junior College Press Association's General Excellence Award for the 11th time during the past 14 years.

Approved a 7.5 percent salary increase for the administrative and supervisory, secretarial and clerical staff.

Approved the hiring of Polly Kirkland as the new Lady Wildcat basketball coach and accepted the resignation of Ralph Stinson, electrical instructor of the Lamar County campus in Purvis.

And upon recommendation of Dr. Alexander, the board was presented an Energy Management System savings report by business manager Ron Holmes, in which he stated that the college has experienced a $27,019 savings over an 18-month period to the implementation of the new system.

Bay resident among MD grads

JACKSON—Dr. John A. Gronvall, chief medical director of the Veterans Administration, addressed some 244 graduating health sciences students at the 31st annual University of Mississippi Medical Center Commencement Exercises at city auditorium on Sunday.

DR. DALE LOACANO

University of Mississippi Chancellor R. Gerald Turner awarded the degrees. The total included 119 for the MD; 105 for the BS in nursing; 30 for the DMD; and 22 for the MS, the MS in nursing, the master of combined sciences and the PhD.

UMC graduates also included 11 for the BS in medical technology, 23 for the BS in physical therapy, six for the BS in nurse anesthetics, 14 for the BS in medical record administration, five for the BS in respiratory therapy; one for the BS in Cytotechnology, and 10 for the BS in dental hygiene—the first the institution has awarded.

The graduates and their families were honored at a breakfast hosted by Medical Center alumni and at the Chancellor's reception earlier on Commencement Day.

Bay St. Louis resident Dale Patrick Lolacano was among the graduates. He received the MD degree.

Dr. Lolacano will intern at Washington-St. Tammany Charity Hospital in Bogalusa, La. He earned the BA degree in 1981 at Millsaps College.

Dr. Lolacano is the son of Mrs. J. E. Lolacano Sr. of Bay St. Louis.

EDDIE BETCHER

Male nursing major cracks The W's SGA council

COLUMBUS—Eddie Betcher of Pass Christian is a history maker at Mississippi University for Women. Betcher, a 22-year-old nursing major, is the first male student to be elected to a position on the Student Government Association Executive Council. He is an incoming senior.

And to add a footnote to the history books, Betcher and fellow MUW student Heather Spidahl of Lucedale are the first students to both fill the office of SGA vice president—at the same time.

Betcher, who will serve as the SGA's co-vice president with Miss Spidahl, explained that the shared position came about because of a tie during spring campuswide elections. "When I found out, I thought, 'this cannot be happening,'" Betcher said. Instead of having a runoff election, the two worked out a compromise to share the SGA post.

"Normally, the SGA vice president is president of the Senate and has executive duties. But this coming year, Heather will head the Senate, and I will handle the executive duties, such as coordinating SGA projects and lending Sally (Burchfield) a hand when she needs it." Miss Burchfield, a senior from Kosciusko, is SGA president.

"I ran for the SGA vice presidency for several reasons," Betcher said. "The main one was that I wanted to get involved in campus activities. The post is perfect for what I wanted to do, also, it will give me an opportunity to give back to the school a little of what I'm getting."

Betcher's goals include increasing weekend campus activities and increasing student involvement.

"We want to provide the opportunity for everyone to be involved. That would make the campus better for everybody. There's so much potential there. Being involved in campus activities teaches communication and leadership skills, and I think that's part of the education you receive in college," he said.

Betcher will have to work for an "A" in time management to successfully handle classroom and SGA responsibilities next year. "Before I ran for the office, I talked to my adviser, and we came to the conclusion that if I budget my time well, I can handle both."

Betcher is a resident student, and he feels living on campus will be a plus with his busy lifestyle. "I think living on campus is a good idea, especially if you want to become involved fully in campus life."

The new SGA officer came to MUW because he was looking primarily for a strong nursing program.

"When I decided to change my major to nursing, I began looking to see what programs were like across the state. And the more I looked, I realized the The W was tops. In my opinion, no other program in the state can touch it. It has an excellent reputation, so I decided to go where the program was the best. That's why I'm here."

After graduating next May, Betcher said he will look at medical schools, "or I will work for a year or two and then go to graduate school. I definitely want to continue my education."

Betcher is active in Delta Sigma Omega, a campus fraternity, and is a Troubadour Social Club Big Brother. He is also a member of the Student Nurses Association and the Wesley Foundation. He was the first male senator and served as senate parliamentarian.

He is the son of Lucy R. Betcher of Pass Christian and Raymond R. Betcher of Long Beach.

State's teachers rated excellent in ETV

Mississippi schoolteachers who have been deemed especially effective in the classroom are the subject of the next edition of "Education: The Way Up," a production of Mississippi ETV, which will be rebroadcast at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, June 14. It was first shown on ETV last March.

A mini-documentary included in the half-hour program profiles history teacher Edward Wong of Vicksburg High School, who holds the title of Mississippi Teacher of the Year.

Scouts become bridge engineers at Flint Creek Water Park outing

Scouts of Troop 217 which is sponsored by Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church and Pere Le Duc Council 1522 Knights of Columbus recently held a weekend camp-out at Flint Creek Water Park near Wiggins.

The Scouts spent most of the weekend working on pioneering projects, the major one being an eight-foot high by 50-foot long monkey rope bridge.

The Scouts first erected two A-frames lashed with rope, then a one-inch and two half-inch ropes were tied over the A-frames, the ends were tied to trees.

The Scouts also made other small pioneering projects such as tables, benches, shoe racks, gate ways and fences. The Scouts also learned how to move heavy logs with wilderness engineering.

The Scouts made a 1/4-inch rope from 1/16-inch twine, and cooked all their own meals and spent the night in tents.

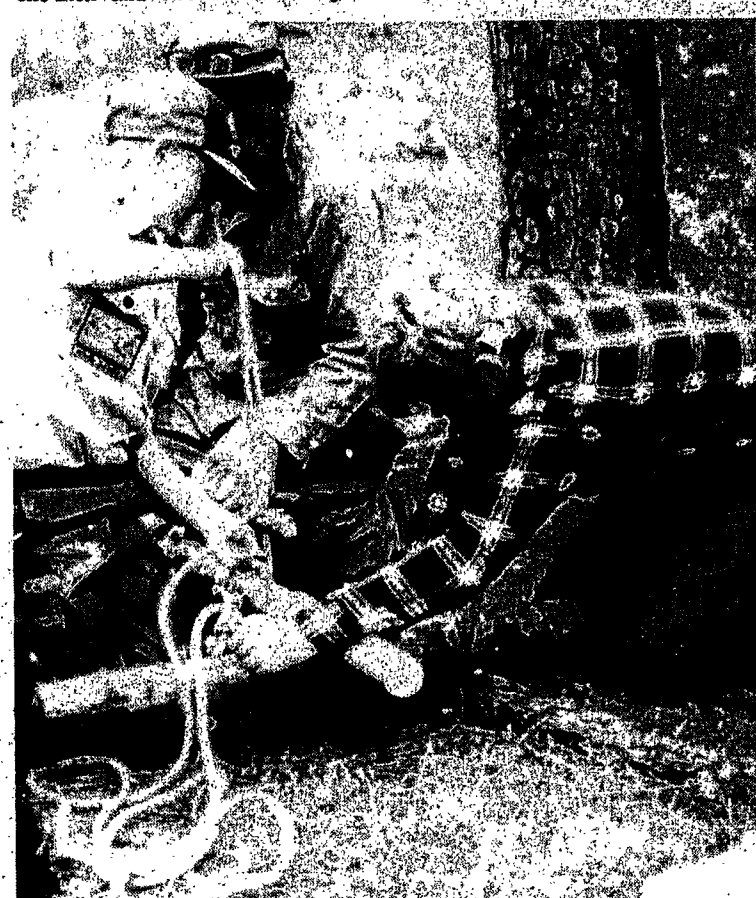

On arriving at Flint Creek Camp the Scouts hiked 1 1/2 miles with all their personal equipment on their backs to the campsite.

On Sunday they hiked out again 1 1/2 miles.

The Scouts of Troop 217 are planning their sixth annual four-day, 42-mile float trip on Black Creek in late May, and a 10-day, 1,400 mile Smoky Mountains trip in June.

Any boy 11 years or older may join in the fun. Troop 217 meets each Tuesday at the KC Hall, 315 Main St. in Bay St. Louis. For more information call 452-7540.

MATT LEE, SCOTT BOUDREAUX AND ROY MASSON ASSEMBLE BRIDGE'S A-FRAME

LEADERS Greg Richardson, Roy Masson and Benny McCollister help Scout Dwayne Bremer master the tricky crossing on a monkey bridge

Albert Biehl, left, and Neil Brimelou give moral support to Heath Bulot as he attempts the hazardous monkey bridge crossing

College students at home on Coast for summer have unique opportunity at USM Gulf Coast

LONG BEACH—College students whose homes are on the Gulf Coast but who attend other institutions have a unique summer opportunity through the University of Southern Mississippi—Gulf Coast.

Students who attend other colleges may take classes at USM-Gulf Coast while home for the summer and then return to the institution they regularly attend.

This opportunity is open to students who are eligible to return to the institution they regularly attend, and who have 54 or more semester hours at the end of the spring semester.

In addition, students will need to complete an application for admission and attach a copy of their last grade report.

Also, in accord with admission policies in Mississippi, they may be asked to show proof of immunization against measles and rubella.

According to USM personnel this opportunity has been used extensively during previous summers by students who attend other institutions.

"The class format at USM-Gulf Coast, plus the wide variety of offerings, enhance this opportunity in that the student can attend classes in the evenings and have days available for job or other summer activities, and our offerings make it easy for students to find something they need in their academic plan," said Lynn Estes, director of student services.

Classes for USM-Gulf Coast are held at the USM-Gulf Park campus in Long Beach, USM Keesler at Keesler AFB, and in Jackson County at the USM Building on the junior college campus in Gautier.

In addition, USM offers courses on the NSTL site in Hancock County and in Piquette. For the student who does not wish to devote the entire summer to classes, there are also intensive courses, at USM Gulf Coast, that are completed within one to three weeks.

Information about this summer opportunity for students who attend other institutions is available by calling 865-4503 in Harrison County and 497-3638 in Jackson County. Information about NSTL and intensive courses is available by calling 865-4508, and for Piquette information call toll-free in Mississippi 1-800-CALL USM.

Bay Scouts advance at Court of Honor

Members of Troop 217, Boy Scouts of America sponsored by Our Lady of The Gulf Catholic Church and Pere Le Duc Council No. 1522 Knights of Columbus, were cited at a recent Court of Honor at the KC Hall in Bay St. Louis.

Entering the Scouts are Tommy Cheny, Steve Warren, Jay Santinelli, Jason Harris, Ray Jay Bingham, Jamey Warfel and Michael Harvey.

Advanced to tenderfoot rank are Matthew Price, Aaron Ferrell, Russel Loyd, Albert Biehl, Jason Harris, Ray Jay Bingham, Teddy Belsion, Michael Harvey, Jamey Warfel and Jo-Mike Humphrey.

Other promotions include Dwayne Bremer, second class; Heath Bulot and Tony Richardson, first class; and Neil Brimelow, star.

Service Stars were awarded to Rony Richardson, Scott Boudreaux and Mark Casanova, one year; Matthew Lee and Ben McCollister, two years; and Matthew Carver and Neil Brimelow, three years.

Troop assignments announced at the court ceremonies include Matthew Carver, Senior Patrol leader; Ben McCollister, assistant Senior Patrol leader; Matthew Lee, Eagle Patrol leader; Duncan Schafer, assistant Eagle Patrol leader; Tony Richardson, Raccoon Patrol leader; Heath Bulot, Hawks Patrol leader; Scott Boudreaux, assistant Hawks Patrol leader; and Neil Brimelow, Quartermaster-Leadership Corps.

EXCHANGE STUDENT—Jennifer Schreiber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Schreiber of Diamondhead, will visit a French family in Cannes this summer. Jennifer studies French language, history and geography. Schreiber is completing her sophomore year at Hancock North Central and will return from France on Aug. 3 to resume her high school studies. She will leave from New Orleans with an American International Student Exchange group chaperoned by Ms. Polly Scutaris of Albuquerque, N.M.

READ-A-THON—Coast Episcopal Elementary School students who participated in a read-a-thon and collected $1,280 in donations for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society include Maria Koskan, left, first grade, daughter of Drs. Allen and Irene Koskan of Gulfport, first place; Drew Sawyer, second grade, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sawyer of Long Beach, second; and Julie Hopper, sixth grade, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Hopper of Pass Christian, third. Mrs. Jane Estrada, CEES principal, said, "Reading for fun and raising money for such a worthy cause was a beautiful and unique experience for all our students, everyone benefitted." (CEES photo)

MEC Mississippi Economic Council Leadership training program open to state youth Leadership Mississippi is accepting applications for its 1987-88 leadership training program.

The statewide program, created by the Mississippi Economic Council in 1974, identifies and trains emerging young leaders in the state. Graduates of the Leadership Mississippi Program include local and state officials, business executives, and board members for the state's top companies and organizations.

U.S. Representative Mike Espy, a graduate of the program, said the program has additional benefits to its primary objective of developing leadership skills.

"That in itself is a great objective, but the greater benefit is the network you can establish with other young leaders—other motivated people. I have kept those contacts throughout my development and I used them when I ran for office," Espy said.

Through the program, MEC attempts to identify young business and professional people who have leadership skills and to encourage them with motivational activities and assist in sharpening their leadership skills.

Nancy Dear, program director, said the object is to motivate and train the delegates so they will exert a strong, positive influence on the future of the state.

"Leadership Mississippi encourages them to put those leadership skills to work for the good of the state. Mississippi needs strong leaders and this program is geared to finding and training them," she said.

About 30 delegates are selected for the program each year. The delegates must be 35 or younger. The selection is made by a committee of MEC members on the basis of leadership potential and demonstrated interest in the state and local communities. Efforts are made to balance the participants according to profession, geography, sex, and race.

Tuition for the program is $200 per delegate. Tuition pays for training and training materials.

The deadline for application is July 1, Dear said.

After the class members are selected, the delegates are divided regionally by teams and assigned a research project to be completed over a five-month period. Training sessions are held in October and January, and a final meeting is held in March when the reports are presented and judged.

Dear said any Mississippian 35 or younger who is interested in leadership skills training is encouraged to apply for the program.

Additional information about the program is available from the MEC office, P.O. Box 2849, Jackson, MS 39215-1849, (601) 969-0022.

DAMAGE PREVENTION PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

All Companies or persons excavating shall obtain digging permit to allow city inspectors in all areas to locate and mark distribution facilities before excavation begins. It is also necessary to inspect distribution facilities after the work is completed in order to insure that the piping has not been dented or the wrapping damaged. The City shall be notified when underground work is completed. Permits must be obtained and filed at City Hall Utilities Department, Coleman Ave., Waveland, Mississippi.

A 48-hour notice is required of contractors or persons involved in underground construction to insure proper marking of buried plant before digging begins. The number to call for information is 467-9248.

WHO PAYS FOR DOUBLE COUPONS?

YOU DO!

Manufacturers only pay the coupon's face value. YOU pay the rest in the form of higher food prices.

(Of course, we still honor manufacturers' coupons... The manufacturers pay for that. Not You.)

WHO PAYS FOR WEEKLY SPECIALS?

YOU DO!

For every low price "Weekly Special" listed in this paper, there's a much longer list of prices they had to keep high to pay for them.

(Weekly Specials go back up the next week, sometimes sooner.)

YOU CAN SAVE ON EVERY ITEM EVERY DAY AT DELCHAMPS BECAUSE YOU DON'T PAY FOR SPECIALS OR DOUBLE COUPONS.
